THE PROJECT

EIRENE Peace-building and Conflict Management through Non Formal Education is a project forecasting three strategic actions: one TRAINING COURSE, one ONLINE ADVANCE PLANNING VISIT and two YOUTH EXCHANGES.

TOPICS:

Innovative educational methods: during the training course, participants will develop knowledge, innovative methods and tools, that could be used to build up a workshop and/or a training course on peace-building and conflict management, once back home;

Youth Participation, Active citizenship: during the youth exchanges, the young people, will develop knowledge and techniques to practically experiment raising awareness activities on peace-building and conflict management;

Peace Education: which promotes the enhancement of knowledge, skills and attitudes to help people preventing conflict where occurring, resolving them peacefully, or creating a given ground and conditions for peace.

Conflict Management: a specific focus will be given to conflict analysis, its different phases, and testing a variety of methods and techniques of conflict management through non formal education.

METHODOLOGY

The whole project will be based on non formal education - NFE methodologies. It will be proposed a learning by doing approach, where each activity is based on specific learning objectives in order to better target the educational action and to ensure a coherent learning process of individuals and groups.

During the project it is implemented a LEARNING BY DOING APPROACH: the specific learning objectives are organized to be practically experimented through interactive activities and to ensure a coherent learning process. Furthermore, METHODS ARE RE-ADAPTED during the process, taking into account the needs of participants and of the different actors involved.
